

KQED Celebrates
American Indian
Heritage Month

November 2011
Program and Resource Guide

KQED

In November, KQED proudly celebrates the diversity of our community with a special lineup on KQED 9; HD (the high-definition channel; Comcast 709, Channels 9.1 & 54.2); and KQED Plus (+) (Comcast 10, Channels 54, 54.1, & 9.2).

This guide also lists programs airing on Life (Comcast 189, Channel 54.3); and World (Comcast 190, Channel 9.3). Some programs repeat additional times on these channels. Visit kqed.org/dtv for the complete digital program schedule.

PROGRAMMING SYMBOLS

- Q This program is a KQED production, co-production, or presentation.
- ★ This program (or episode) is airing on KQED 9 or KQED Plus (+) for the first time.
- R This program will be repeated on the date noted.
- D Descriptive video information for the sight-impaired is available on televisions with stereo capability.

Programs are subject to change after press deadlines. For the latest program information, visit kqed.org/tvchanges or call our automated program information line at 415.354.8000. If you are recording, allow five minutes for early starts and late finishes.

Cover photo: KQED American Indian Heritage Month Celebration 2010, courtesy Alain McLaughlin.

Tuesday 1

9:30am KQED World | Desert Speaks Shadows of the Ancients examines evidence that suggests ancestral Pueblo Indians marked astronomical events.

Friday 4

9am KQED World | History Detectives Civil War-Era Submarine/Red Cloud's Pipe/The Edison House includes the investigation of a pipe thought to be a gift from Chief Red Cloud.

Saturday 5

3pm KQED World | For the Rights of All: Ending Jim Crow in Alaska explores the Alaska Native struggle for equality and the central role of one Tlingit Indian woman. | D

5pm KQED Life | Art Wolfe's Travels to the Edge The Southwest: Zion and Canyon de Chelly.

6pm KQED 9 | The Mystery of Chaco Canyon Visit a site in New Mexico that's perhaps the only place in the world constructed in a pattern that mirrors the elaborate yearly cycle of the sun and 19-year cycle of the moon. | R (World) 11/6 10:30pm

Tuesday 8

9:30am KQED World | Desert Speaks Living Traditions of the Tohono O'odham. Learn how tribal members pass down practices of saguaro fruit harvesting and basket weaving.

EVENING

7:30pm KQED 9 | Spark | Q | Catherine Wagner, Kerry Laitala, Ben Wood features artists who use the camera to reveal hidden realities. | R (9) 11/9 1:30am, 11/11 11:30pm, 11/12 5:30am; (Life) 11/13 6:30pm

Wednesday 9

EARLY

1:30am KQED 9 | Spark | Q | Catherine Wagner, Kerry Laitala, Ben Wood. | R (9) 11/11 11:30pm, 11/12 5:30am; (Life) 11/13 6:30pm

10am KQED Life | California's Gold California's State Parks explores the Providence Mountain State Recreation Area and the Indian Grinding Rock State Historic Park.

Thursday 10

10am KQED Life | California's Gold Important Places includes a visit to Sherman Institute High School, an off-reservation boarding school for Native Americans.

Friday 11

9am KQED World | History Detectives The Spirit of St. Louis/Gary Powers' "Suicide Pin"/Image of Apache Warrior Geronimo investigates the connection between a lieutenant governor of the New Mexico territory in the 1870s and the legendary Apache warrior.

10am KQED Life | California's Golden Fairs Amador County Fair.

EVENING

11:30pm KQED 9 | Spark | Q | Catherine Wagner, Kerry Laitala, Ben Wood. | R (9) 11/12 5:30am; (Life) 11/13 6:30pm

Saturday 12

2:30pm KQED Life | Travelscope Ontario, Canada's Far North. In relative isolation, the MoCreeBec and Moose Cree struggle to keep their cultures alive.

3pm KQED World | Long Walk: Tears of the Navajo Peter Coyote narrates this look at the forced relocation of Navajo men, women, and children in 1864.

6pm KQED 9 | Jim Thorpe: World's Greatest Athlete chronicles the sports star's life, Olympic gold-medal wins, and support of American Indian rights. | D

Sunday 13

1pm KQED 9 | Apache 8 | ★ | tells the compelling story of an all-women firefighter crew from the White Mountain Apache. | D

2pm KQED 9 | Contrary Warrior: The Life and Times of Adam Fortunate Eagle | ★ | tells the story of this contemporary activist, artist, author, and ceremonial leader. | R (World) 11/13 9pm

EVENING

10pm KQED World | Blackfeet Encounter explores the deadly confrontation between the Blackfeet people and the Lewis and Clark expedition.

11pm KQED World | Choctaw Code Talkers reveals the wartime contributions of forgotten heroes, the Choctaw soldiers during World War I. | D

Monday 14

10am KQED Life | California's Golden Parks Ahjumawi. Join host Huell Howser at this amazing state park.

10pm KQED Life | Weaving Worlds is an intimate portrait of the history of Navajo rug weavers and their role within the global economy. | D | R (Life) 11/20 11pm

11pm KQED 9 | Smokin' Fish | ★ | A quirky Tlingit businessman decides to spend a summer smoking fish at his family's camp in Alaska. | D | R (9) 11/15 5am; (Life) 11/15 10pm

Tuesday 15

EARLY

- 5am KQED 9 | Smokin' Fish | D | R (Life) 11/15 10pm
- 9:30am KQED World | Desert Speaks Medieval Drought in the Southwest. Scientists learn about this phenomenon by taking core samples from the area's bristle cone pines. | R (World) 11/19 8am, 11/20 3:30pm

Wednesday 16

- 11pm KQED 9 | Independent Lens March Point. Three teens from the Swinomish Tribe investigate the impact of oil refineries on their community. | R (9) 11/17 5am; (Life) 11/17 10pm

Thursday 17

EARLY

- 5am KQED 9 | Independent Lens March Point. | R (Life) 11/17 10pm
- 9am KQED World | Alan Alda in Scientific American Frontiers Fat and Happy? looks at the movement of Native Americans suffering widespread obesity-related diabetes to get back to traditional wild food diets. | D

EVENING

- 11pm KQED + | Independent Lens | ★ | We Still Live Here—As Nutayunean. Spurred on by their celebrated linguist Jessie Little Doe Baird (pictured below), the Wampanoag of Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard are reviving their language more than a century after the last native speaker died. | D | R (9) 11/22 11pm, 11/23 5am; (Life) 11/23 10pm; (World) 11/27 8pm

Friday 18

- 9am KQED World | History Detectives #608.

Saturday 19

- 3pm KQED World | Walking Into the Unknown traces the intimate journey of an American Indian physician as he navigates the health-care system.
- 3:30pm KQED Life | Burt Wolf: Travels and Traditions Santa Fe, New Mexico.
- 4pm KQED World | Unconquered Seminoles The history and identity of Florida's resilient Seminole tribe is rooted in obstacle and survival.
- 4:30pm KQED World | Games of the North | ★ | follows modern Inuit athletes as they compete in ancestral Inuit sports in the unforgiving arctic. | R (9) 11/20 12:30pm
- 5pm KQED World | Independent Lens Power Paths. American Indian tribes explore ways to bring renewable energy projects into their communities.
- 6pm KQED 9 | Independent Lens Reel Injun explores the "Hollywood Indian," the portrayal of American Natives through a century of cinema. | D | R (World) 11/20 8pm; (+) 11/24 11pm

Sunday 20

- noon KQED 9 | Before There Were Parks: Yellowstone and Glacier Through Native Eyes A Native American perspective of the area celebrates efforts between park staff and Tribal Nations.
- 1pm KQED 9 | Time Team America Range Creek, Utah. Explore the rugged and remote red-rock canyons where Fremont Indians lived 1,000 years ago. | R (World) 11/26 3pm
- 2pm KQED 9 | Journey of Sacagawea Learn about the woman behind the historical icon and how cultures and events may have shaped her. | R (World) 11/26 5pm

EVENING

- 8pm KQED Life | Waila! Making the People Happy This native instrumental music features accordion, saxophone, electric guitar, bass, and drums.
- 8:30pm KQED Life | Gallery: The National Museum of the American Indian charts the unveiling of the first Smithsonian Museum dedicated exclusively to American Indians.
- 9pm KQED Life | Frontier Visionary: George Catlin and the Plains Indians Experience Catlin's epic 19th-century journey up the Missouri River, following parts of the Lewis and Clark trail.
- 9pm KQED World | Good Meat | ★ | A 333-pound man eats a traditional Lakota diet of buffalo meat and other Native foods to lose weight.
- 9:30pm KQED Life | Maria Hinojosa: One-On-One Chris Eyre. Meet the filmmaker acclaimed for his intimate focus on the contemporary Native American experience. | R (World) 11/26 12:30pm

- 10pm KQED Life | Summer Sun, Winter Moon A Blackfeet Indian poet and a composer work on a symphony about the Lewis and Clark expedition.
- 10pm KQED World | Original Patriots: Northern California Indian Veteran chronicles the history, service, sacrifice, and dedication of the Navajo veteran from World War I to Iraq.
- 11pm KQED World | Playing for the World: The 1904 Fort Shaw Indian Girls Basketball Team introduces a team of Native American women who played basketball at a Montana school in 1902.

Tuesday 22

- 9:30am KQED World | Desert Speaks Monumental Dunes. Visit groups of sand dunes in the United States and explore their structure, patterns, and wildlife. | R (World) 11/26 8am, 11/27 3:30pm
- 7:30pm KQED 9 | Spark | Q | Julia Parker, Carlos Baron, Josephine Taylor. Visit Yosemite where Julia Parker, a master basket weaver of the Kashia Pomo Indians, is helping to revive the art form. | R (9) 11/23 1:30am

EVENING

- 11pm KQED 9 | Independent Lens We Still Live Here—As Nutayunean. | D | R (9) 11/23 5am; (Life) 11/23 10pm; (World) 11/27 8pm

Wednesday 23

EARLY

- 1:30am KQED 9 | Spark | Q | Julia Parker, Carlos Baron, Josephine Taylor.

Thursday 24

- 10:30pm KQED 9 | Lonely Island: Hidden Alcatraz | Q | Greg Sherwood joins park service ranger John Cantwell and others on a walking history tour of the island. | R (9) 11/25 4:30am; (Life) 11/25 9:30pm; (World) 11/27 9pm
- 11pm KQED + | Independent Lens Reel Injun. | D

Friday 25

EARLY

- 4:30am KQED 9 | Lonely Island: Hidden Alcatraz | R (Life) 11/25 9:30pm; (World) 11/27 9pm
- 9am KQED World | History Detectives A recording may hold evidence used in the World War II treason trial of Iva Tugori, aka Tokyo Rose.

Saturday 26

- 4pm KQED World | River of Renewal Reveals follows the ongoing battle over the resources of Northern California's and Oregon's Klamath Basin.

Sunday 27

- 10:30pm KQED World | Aleut Story Martin Sheen helps tell the story of the forced internment of indigenous Alaskans during World War II.

Resources

Please note that this is only a small portion of the many organizations that serve the American Indian community in the Bay Area. To add your organization to this list or update information for next year's guide, please send an email to heritage@kqed.org.

Advocacy

Advocates for Indigenous California Language Survival

707.486.6806; aicls.org
Fosters the restoration of indigenous California languages by offering language classes, teacher training, and other educational programs.

American Indian Activity Group/ Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

925.423.7846
Promotes awareness and appreciation of Native American culture through special events at the lab and at various local venues; promotes higher education for American Indian students through scholarships.

American Indian Resources Institute

209.460.0924, Stockton;
indianlawreporter.org
Publishes Indian Law Reporter, a unique and comprehensive monthly information journal for practitioners and others involved in Indian law.

Bay Area American Indian Two-Spirits

415.865.5616; baaits.org
Restores and recovers the role of two-spirit people within the American Indian community by creating forums for their spiritual, cultural, and artistic expression.

Black Native American Association

bnaa.org
An intertribal group of people who are of both African American and Native American heritage that honors the world's indigenous peoples.

California Indian Legal Services

760.746.8941 (main office);
calindian.org
With offices in Bishop, Escondido, Eureka, and Sacramento; provides free and low-cost legal assistance to Native American individuals and tribes.

Department of Veterans Affairs: Native American Program

650.493.5000, ext. 64374
Ensures that the Department of Veterans Affairs addresses the unique circumstances and needs of Native American veterans of the U.S. military. This particular program is geared primarily to Native American employees of the Palo Alto VA healthcare system, but its staff is able to answer a wide range of questions and make referrals.

International Indian Treaty Council

415.641.4482; treatycouncil.org
An organization of indigenous people from North, Central and South America, and the Pacific; works for the sovereignty and self-determination of indigenous peoples and for the recognition of indigenous rights, treaties, cultures, and sacred lands.

Intertribal Council of California

916.973.9581; itccinc.org
A nonprofit statewide association of more than 50 tribes that develops programs to help tribes take care of themselves.

Marin American Indian Alliance

marinindianalliance.org
Publishes a quarterly newsletter and organizes cultural and educational gatherings to promote and maintain connections among American Indians living in Marin County.

National Congress of American Indians

202.466.7767, Washington, D.C.;
ncai.org
Serves as a forum for consensus-based policy development among its membership of more than 250 tribal governments; informs the public and the federal government about tribal self-government, treaty rights, and federal policy issues affecting tribal governments.

National Indian Justice Center

707.579.5507, 800.966.0662;
nijc.org
An Indian owned and operated nonprofit that designs and delivers legal education, research, and technical assistance programs in an effort to improve the administration of justice.

Oyate

707.996.6700; oyate.org
A community-based Native organization that works toward honest portrayals of Native Americans by evaluating texts, resource materials, and fiction by and about Native peoples; by conducting teacher workshops; and by distributing children's, young adult, and teacher-training books and materials.

Arts

American Indian Film Institute

415.554.0525; aifisf.com
A media arts center that fosters understanding of the cultures, traditions, and issues of contemporary Native Americans; encourages Native and non-Native filmmakers to bring Native voices, viewpoints, and stories to the mainstream media; works to develop an audience for such films and advocates for authentic representation of Indians in the media.

California Indian Basketweavers Association
530.668.1332; ciba.org
Preserves, promotes, and perpetuates California Indian basket-weaving traditions by providing opportunities to study traditional basketry techniques and forms, and to showcase work.

California Indian Museum and Cultural Center
707.579.3004; cimcc.org
Educates the public about the history, culture, and contemporary life of California Indians, and honors their contributions to civilization.

California Indian Storytellers Association
510.793.8208; cistory.org
Dedicated to the preservation, perpetuation, enlivening, and promotion of Indian storytelling, in both traditional and contemporary form, for California tribes and others.

California State Indian Museum
916.324.0971, Sacramento;
parks.ca.gov/indianmuseum
Celebrates the proud heritage of California Indian culture, from the traditions of the ancestors to the work of contemporary Native artists. Displays exhibits and artifacts illustrating the cultures of the state's first inhabitants.

C.N. Gorman Museum, U.C. Davis
530.752.6567;
http://gormanmuseum.ucdavis.edu
Established in honor of Carl Nelson Gorman—Navajo artist and advocate, World War II code talker, and former faculty member in Native American studies. Changing exhibits feature contemporary artwork in a wide range of media, reflecting the canon in which indigenous artists are working today.

Chaw'Se Regional Indian Museum
Located in Indian Grinding Rock State Historic Park (see listing under PARKS and SITES); houses outstanding examples of the technology and crafts of the Miwok and other Sierra Nevada Native American groups. This site has the largest bedrock mortar rocks in North America.

Gallery of the American West
916.446.6662, Sacramento;
gallerywest.com
Features the work of American Indian potters, jewelers, weavers, and carvers. Houses a large collection of antique California Indian basketry and other American Indian artifacts.

Gathering Tribes
510.528.9038;
gatheringtribes.com
Showcases arts, crafts, and jewelry from tribes across the country.

Grace Hudson Museum and Sun House
707.467.2836, Ukiah;
gracehudsonmuseum.org
An art, history, and anthropology museum with changing interdisciplinary exhibitions and public programs that feature Western American art, California Indian cultures, histories of California's diverse North Coast region, and the work of contemporary regional artists.

Healdsburg Museum
707.431.3325;
healdsburgmuseum.org
A regional museum that records, preserves, and fosters an appreciation for the history of Healdsburg and northern Sonoma County.

Santa Rosa Junior College Museum
707.527.4479;
santarosa.edu/museum
Houses collections of Native American art with all North American Indian culture areas represented. Also houses ethnographic art from the Americas and parts of Africa, Asia, and the Pacific.

Maidu Museum and Historic Site
916.774.5934;
roseville.ca.us/indianmuseum
The center consists of an ancient Maidu Indian village site, a Native American museum, and a nature learning center; offers old-ways workshops, seasonal nature programs, and hands-on exhibits.

Marin Museum of the American Indian
415.897.4064; marinindian.com
Dedicated to cultivating an awareness and understanding of Native American history and culture; features a lecture series, a native plant garden, and a gallery with rotating exhibits and demonstrations by Native artists.

Museum of Craft and Folk Art
415.227.4888; mocfa.org
Fosters the appreciation and understanding of craft and folk art from diverse cultures and traditions through exhibitions, educational programs, and research publications.

Pacific Western Traders
916.985.3851;
pacwesttraders.com
Specializing in traditional and contemporary arts of California's Native people; provides educational resource contacts; caters to collectors, students of Indian cultures, and Native Americans in search of traditional supplies.

Phoebe Hearst Museum of Anthropology, U.C. Berkeley
510.642.3682;
http://hearstmuseum.berkeley.edu
Collects, preserves, researches, and interprets material culture to promote understanding of the history and diversity of human cultures; houses the Native Californian Cultures Gallery.

Education

American Indian Child Resource Center
510.208.1870; aircr.org
Provides individualized tutoring, academic advising, cultural arts, peer support, and educational field trips for American Indian youth. Works to preserve and promote the integrity and culture of American Indian youth and their families.

American Indian Graduate Program, U.C. Berkeley
510.642.3228;
grad.berkeley.edu/aigp
Provides individual recruitment and student services to broaden academic and professional opportunities for American Indians and Alaska Natives through graduate education.

American Indian Library Service, Oakland Public Library, Diamond Branch
510.482.7844; oaklandlibrary.org
Its collection includes approximately 1,500 volumes for adults and young readers that cover Native American history, culture, and arts.

American Indian Studies Department, San Francisco State University
415.338.1054 or 415.405.3928;
sfsu.edu/~ais/
Offers academic services to local, regional, national, and international American Indian communities; and continues training and education of American Indians both inside and outside traditional academic realms.

California Department of Education: American Indian Education
916.319.0851;
cde.ca.gov/sp/ai
A program for local educational agencies, Indian tribes and organizations, and other entities about meeting the unique academic, cultural, and linguistic needs of American Indian students.

California Indian Library Collection, California State Library
library.ca.gov
Provides resources and historical references on California's Indian population.

Miwok Archeological Preserve of Marin
415.491.0401; mapom.org
Offers classes in California Indian arts for adults, including basketry, bow making, native plant use, and shell-bead making. Seeks to promote accurate knowledge of the Coast Miwok Indians—the first people of Marin and southern Sonoma counties.

Native American Studies Collection, Ethnic Studies Library, U.C. Berkeley
510.643.1234;
http://esilibrary.berkeley.edu
An integral part of the project to challenge mainstream histories with research that produces educational resources meaningful to Native American communities.

Native American Studies Program, U.C. Berkeley
510.643.0796;
http://ethnicstudies.berkeley.edu/nas/
Part of the Department of Ethnic Studies; broadens the understanding of students interested in the history, culture, and contemporary situations of Native Americans in the United States.

Native American Cultural Center, Stanford University
650.725.6944;
stanford.edu/dept/nacc
The American Indian, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian Program serves a diverse and underrepresented student population by creating programs that address the factors influencing Native Americans' progress and completion of an academic degree.

Society for the Advancement of Chicanos and Native Americans in Science
831.459.0170 or 877.SACNAS.1 (toll free); sacnas.org
Encourages Chicano/Latino and Native American students to pursue graduate education and obtain the advanced degrees necessary for careers in science teaching and research.

Woodfish Institute
415.263.0423; woodfish.org
Provides innovative approaches to Native American education and the preservation of indigenous healing methodologies.

American Indian Heritage Month Programming on KQED Public Radio

88.5 FM San Francisco
89.3 FM Sacramento

Hearing Voices

Native America:

Our Nation's First Nations

Wednesday, November 23, 8pm and

Saturday, November 26, 1pm

Canoes, horses, poems, and songs in the heart of Native America. Hosted by Barrett Golding and featuring work by Jesse Boggs, Alex Chadwick, and Carolyn Jensen Chadwick.

Family/Children

American Indian Child Resource Center—See EDUCATION

Break the Cycle

breakthecycle.org

Aims to end domestic violence by working proactively with youth; provides 12- through 22-year-olds with preventive education, free legal services, advocacy, and support.

Friendship House, Association of American Indians
415.865.0964;

friendshiphousesf.org

Provides recovery services and aftercare programs for American Indians and their families, including prevention and treatment of alcoholism and other diseases of addiction; promotes women's health; offers programs targeted to youth and communities, including housing assistance and job readiness training.

Hintil Kuu Ca Child Development Center

510.531.8400

Part of the Oakland Unified School District's Children Centers program; a unique child care program incorporating Native American culture and values.

Indian Child and Family Preservation Program

707.463.2644, Ukiah

707.544.8509, Santa Rosa

An all Indian Tribal nonprofit corporation and a consortium of tribes formed to provide Indian Child Welfare Act advocacy and a comprehensive array of other services.

A Safe Place

510.986.8600 (business and counseling center), 510.536.7233 (crisis line);
asafepplacedvs.org

Offers comprehensive services to victims of domestic violence. Works to decrease the number of women and children returning to violent relationships, and educates the community.

Health

California Rural Indian Health Board

crihb.org

A network of tribal health programs devoted to the needs and interests of the Indians of rural California; controlled and sanctioned by Indian people and their tribal governments.

Indian Health Center of Santa Clara Valley

408.445.3400; indianhealthcenter.org

Ensures the survival of American Indian families and individuals by providing comprehensive health care for the American Indian community.

National Native American AIDS Prevention Center

720.382.2244; nnaapc.org

A Denver, Colorado-based nonprofit that helps organizations that serve Native communities to plan, develop, and manage HIV/AIDS prevention, intervention, care, and treatment programs.

Native American AIDS Project

415.431.6227; <http://naap-ca.org/>

Offers case management, treatment advocacy, peer advocacy, traditional healing, and mental health services to Native Americans living with HIV; offers prevention education and outreach.

Native American Health Center

Administrative office: 510.747.3030

Oakland Clinic: 510.535.4400

Oakland Wellness Center: 510.434.1772

Richmond Center: 510.232.7020

San Francisco Clinic: 415.621.8051;

nativehealth.org

Provides medical/dental services, infant/children programs, a guidance clinic, AIDS prevention and treatment services, and youth programs for Native Americans and non-Natives.

San Francisco AIDS Foundation

415.487.8000 (client services); sfaf.org

Provides programs and services to reduce the number of new HIV infections that occur each year and to improve the quality of life for people living with HIV/AIDS.

Media

Bay Native Circle

KPFA/Berkeley: 510.848.6767

kpfa.org/bay-native-circle

A weekly radio show examining Native issues, people, culture, and events.

News from Native California

510.549.2802;

heydaybooks.com/news

A unique quarterly magazine devoted to the Indian people of California, written and produced by California Indians and those close to the community; provides a portrait of traditional and contemporary tribal culture; reports on such topics as health and the environment.

Parks and Sites

Coastanoan-Ohlone Indian Canyon Resource

831.637.4238; indiancanyon.org,

indiancanyonvillage.org

Provides resources and traditional lands for ceremonies; situated in the only federally recognized Indian county in California. Fundraising for the construction of a village house is under way.

Coyote Hills Regional Park, Fremont

888.327.2757, 510.633.0460 (TDD);

ebparks.org

Preserves the fascinating archaeological resources of the rich wetlands and shell mound sites left by the Ohlone Indians—the East Bay's original inhabitants.

Indian Grinding Rock State Historic Park

209.296.7488, Pine Grove;

parks.ca.gov

Preserves petroglyphs and Northern Sierra Miwok artifacts; also features celebrations and demonstrations throughout the year and houses the Chaw'Se Regional Indian Museum (see museum description under ARTS).

Kule Loklo Coast Miwok Cultural Exhibit, Point Reyes

nps.gov/pore/historyculture/people\_coastmiwok.htm

Re-creates a Coast Miwok village where students can learn about Miwok traditions and land-use ethics. Miwok Archeological Preserve of Marin (see listing under EDUCATION) offers California Indian skills classes at Kule Loklo in spring and fall.

Professional Organizations

American Indian Chamber of Commerce of California

213.440.3232, Los Angeles;

aicccal.org

Provides American Indian business owners with educational, mentoring, and networking opportunities.

American Indian Science and Engineering Society

505.765.1052, Albuquerque, N.M.;

aises.org

Nurtures building of community by bridging science and technology with traditional Native values; provides opportunities for American Indians and Native Alaskans to pursue studies in science, engineering, and business.

Association of American Indian Physicians (and Dentists)

405.946.7072, Oklahoma City;

aaip.org

Dedicated to pursuing excellence in Native American health care by promoting education in the medical disciplines, honoring traditional healing practices, and restoring the balance of mind, body, and spirit.

Kathleen Russell Consulting

415.388.4600; kathleenrussell.com

A strategic communications and event planning firm assisting Native communities and others in achieving their social, economic, and political goals.

Native American Journalists Association

405.325.9008, University of Oklahoma; <http://naja.com>
Serves and empowers Native communicators through programs and activities designed to enrich journalism and promote Native cultures.

North American Indian Information and Trade Center

520.622.4900, Tucson, AZ; usaindianinfo.org
Preserves contemporary and traditional Native American arts; provides consulting services and referrals; conducts seminars and workshops; publishes the Native American Directory.

The Robert Toigo Foundation

510.763.5771; toigofoundation.org
Supports the ongoing advancement of exceptional minority business-degree students and alumni within the finance industry through fellowships, mentoring, networking, leadership development, and job placement assistance.

Western American Indian Chamber of Commerce

303.620.9292, Denver; indiancountry.org
Helps American Indians achieve self-sufficiency through business success; provides a forum for members to address legislative issues and government concerns that affect American Indian business.

Seniors

National Indian Council on Aging

505.292.2001, Albuquerque, N.M.; nicoa.org
Serves as the nation's foremost nonprofit advocate for American Indian and Alaska Native elders; strives to better the lives of the nation's indigenous seniors through advocacy, employment training, information, and support.

San Jose Indian Elders Group

408.292.9827
Sponsors social gatherings and provides resources for American Indian elders in the South Bay.

Websites

NativeWeb

nativeweb.org
An international, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to using telecommunications and the Internet to disseminate information from and about indigenous nations and peoples around the world.

Join Us

KQED enthusiastically celebrates the rich diversity of the Bay Area, and we proudly focus on nationally recognized heritage months with special programming. We also publish a program and resource guide in February for Black History Month; March for Women's History Month; May for Asian Pacific American Heritage Month; June for Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Pride Month; and September for Latino Heritage Month. These free guides, which are available online at kqed.org/heritage, would not be possible without the support and generous contributions of our members.

If you would like to become a member of KQED, please call 415.553.2150 or visit kqed.org.

We appreciate your support.

Games of the North. Whale lookout point. Photo: courtesy Starseed Media, Inc.

American Indian Heritage Month Guide

MANAGING EDITOR
Allyson Quibell

ART DIRECTOR
Zaldy Serrano

DESIGNER
Jeffrey Edalatpour

KQED PUBLIC TELEVISION
PROGRAM SCHEDULING
Scott Dwyer

© KQED Inc. 2011

Automated Program Info Line

415.354.8000
Recorded program schedules and updates for KQED Channel 9, KQED digital channels, and KQED 88.5 FM.

KQED Public Television

tv@kqed.org
415.553.2135
Live assistance 9am-5pm, Mon-Fri.
After hours, recorded information.

KQED Public Television Comments

415.553.2100
Record a statement about KQED public television programs.

KQED Public Radio

fm@kqed.org
88.5 FM San Francisco 415.553.2129
89.3 FM Sacramento 415.570.0215
Live assistance and audio and transcript information 9am-5pm, Mon-Fri. After hours, recorded information.

Audience Services

tv@kqed.org
Send your programming questions anytime. Responses are usually sent within one to two business days.

Member Services

member@kqed.org
415.553.2150
9am-5pm, Mon-Fri.
After hours, please leave a message.

Other KQED Info

415.864.2000, 9am-5pm, Mon-Fri

Latest Updates on KQED Public Television Schedule Changes

kqed.org/tvchanges